PRACTICE AREAS

COMMERCIAL DISPUTES

Veritas Advisory Group, Inc. professionals assist counsel and client companies on a wide variety of commercial disputes involving lost profit calculations and increased cost studies. We have prepared as well as reviewed and critiqued claims for lost profits in a variety of industries, including apparel, computer software, retail sales, electric power, construction, electronics, real estate, wine and distilled spirits, consumer appliances, food processing, and transportation, among others. Our professionals' strong backgrounds in accounting and finance enable us to efficiently and effectively obtain and utilize the relevant financial and accounting information necessary to analyze liability issues and to properly evaluate financial damages. Our professional staff has significant experience in the following types of disputes conducting both liability and damage analyses and presenting our findings in trial, arbitration, or similar proceedings:

- Breach of contract claims
- Business interruption
- Business ruination
- Antitrust
- Dealer / Distributor terminations
- Bankruptcy
- Fraud investigations
- Insurance claims
- Product liability
